(Amend Ord 07-051, 7/3/07)

Section 1.02 Jurisdiction

A. Jurisdiction of the court shall be as granted by the Charter and ordinances of the City of Arlington, and any laws of this state that may now exist or may hereafter be passed by the legislature of this state, regulating or increasing the jurisdiction of the municipal courts in cities the size and grade of the City of Arlington. Such jurisdiction shall include exclusive original jurisdiction in all criminal cases occurring within the territorial limits of the City of Arlington that arise under the ordinances of the City of Arlington which are punishable by fine only not to exceed: Two Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($2,000.00) in all cases arising under municipal ordinances that govern fire safety, zoning or public health and sanitation, including dumping of refuse; or Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($500.00) in all other cases, and shall further include jurisdiction over cases arising in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the City as provided by law. Such jurisdiction shall further include criminal cases arising under state law that occur within the territorial limits of the City of Arlington and which are punishable by fine only. An offense which is punishable by "fine only" is defined as an offense that is punishable by fine and such sanctions as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment that are rehabilitative or remedial in nature. The court has jurisdiction in the forfeiture and final judgment of all bail bonds and personal bonds taken in criminal cases of which the court has jurisdiction. The court

- E. The proceedings of the administrative hearing will be recorded electronically. The person charged may, at his expense, have a court reporter present in the hearing room during the proceedings.
- F. After hearing all the evidence, the hearing officer shall render an order either:
  - 1. finding the person charged liable for the violation, notifying the person of the right of appeal, and assessing the applicable civil penalty or penalties, fees, and costs to the extent allowed and authorized by ordinance or resolution of the Arlington City Council, such resolution being automatically incorporated herein for all purposes; or
  - 2. finding the person charged not liable for the violation.
- G. The administrative order of the hearing officer must be filed with the municipal court.
- H. Appeal.

  - c. pay an appeal fee.
3. If a person found liable for a violation does not timely appeal the hearing officer's administrative order, the order will become a final judgment. A perfected appeal stays enforcement and collection of the penalty, fees, and costs imposed against the person. If the administrative penalties, fees, and costs assessed in the final judgment are not paid within 31 calendar days after the date of the hearing officer's order, the administrative penalties, fees, and costs may be referred to a collection agency and the cost to the city for the collection services will be assessed as costs, at the rate agreed to between the city and the collection agency, and added to the judgment or as otherwise allowed by law.

An appeal shall be determined by the municipal court by hearing de novo. Upon receipt of an appeal, the municipal court shall schedule an appeal hearing and notify the person and the City Attorney's Office of the date, time, and location of the hearing.
5. At the appeal hearing, the municipal judge shall:
  - a. affirm the administrative order of the hearing officer finding the appellant liable; or
  - b. reverse the hearing officer's order and find the appellant not liable.
6. At the appeal hearing, upon an order by the municipal judge of:
  - a. Liable, affirming the administrative order of the hearing officer, the cash deposit or bond shall be applied and forfeited; and
  - b. Not Liable, reversing the administrative order of the hearing officer, the cash deposit or bond shall be refunded to the person, but under no circumstances shall the appeal fee be refunded.

7. The municipal judge's ruling is a final judgment. If the municipal judge affirms the hearing officer's order, any administrative penalties, fees, or costs assessed must be paid within 30 calendar days after the municipal judge's ruling. If the municipal judge reverses the hearing officer's order, any administrative penalties, fees, or costs originally assessed are discharged.

I. Increasing Penalties for Subsequent Offenses.

1. Upon a finding of Liable for an offense at an administrative adjudication hearing or an appeal hearing under this Article, the municipal judge or hearing officer may:

  - b. Assess a penalty in an amount that is three times more than the penalty that would otherwise be assessed, not to exceed the maximum allowed by law, exclusive of costs and fees, if the person has been previously found liable two or more times for the same offense.

- J. If a person does not timely pay the applicable penalties, fees, and costs assessed ordered to be paid by a municipal judge or hearing officer under this Section, a late payment fee shall be assessed.

Section 9.06 Effect of Liability; Exclusion of Civil Remedy; Enforcement

- B. A civil penalty may not be imposed upon a person for an offense under this Article if the person was arrested or was issued a criminal citation and notice to appear by a peace officer for a violation of state law or city ordinance, for the same specific incidence as the civil offense.

A governmental entity that is required by statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance to send a notice to an owner of real property for the purpose of enforcing a municipal ordinance may include the following statement in the notice: "According to the real property records of _____ County, you own the real property described in this notice. - E. A governmental entity that receives an affidavit under Subsection (C) shall:
  - 1. maintain the affidavit on file for at least two years after the date the entity receives the affidavit; and
  - 2. deliver a copy of the affidavit to the chief appraiser of the appraisal district in which the property is located.
- F. A governmental entity is considered to have provided notice to a property owner if the entity complies with the statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance under which the notice is sent and if it:
  - 1. complies with Subsection (A) and does not receive an affidavit from the record owner; or
  - 2. complies with Subsection (D) and does not receive an affidavit from the person to whom the notice was sent under Subsection (D).
- G. If a governmental entity complies with this section and does not receive an affidavit under Subsection (C), the record owner is presumed to be the owner of the property for all purposes to which the notice relates.

BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF ARLINGTON, TEXAS:

That the “Municipal Court” Chapter of the Code of the City of Arlington, Texas, 1987, is hereby amended at Article I, Establishment of the Court, Section 1.01, Creation, so that hereafter said section shall be and read as follows:

Section 1.01 Creation

There is hereby created a municipal court of record to be known as the Municipal Court of the City of Arlington, which shall be comprised of Municipal Court No. 1, Municipal Court No. 2, Municipal Court No. 3 and Municipal Court No 4. Any reference hereinafter to the Court or Municipal Court shall be understood to mean the Municipal Court of the City of Arlington. The court shall be deemed always open for the trial of causes.

Further, Article I, Establishment of the Court, Section 1.02, Jurisdiction, so that hereafter said section shall be and read as follows:

Section 1.02 Jurisdiction

A. Jurisdiction of the court shall be as granted by the Charter and ordinances of the City of Arlington, and any laws of this state that may now exist or may hereafter be passed by the legislature of this state, regulating or increasing the jurisdiction of the municipal courts in cities the size and grade of the City of Arlington. Such jurisdiction shall include exclusive original jurisdiction in all criminal cases occurring within the territorial limits of the City of Arlington that arise under the ordinances of the City of Arlington which are punishable by fine only not to exceed: Two Thousand Dollars and No Cents ($2,000.00) in all cases arising under municipal ordinances that govern fire safety, zoning or public health and sanitation, including dumping of refuse; or Five Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($500.00) in all other cases, and shall further include jurisdiction over cases arising in the extraterritorial jurisdiction of the City as provided by law. Such jurisdiction shall further include criminal cases arising under state law that occur within the territorial limits of the City of Arlington and which are punishable by fine only. An offense which is punishable by “fine only” is defined as an offense that is punishable by fine and such sanctions as authorized by statute not consisting of confinement in jail or imprisonment that are rehabilitative or remedial in nature. The court has jurisdiction in the forfeiture and final judgment of all bail bonds and personal bonds taken in criminal cases of which the court has jurisdiction. The court has jurisdiction in appeals taken from a dangerous animal determination made by the Animal Control Supervisor.

- B. Each municipal court of record shall have and exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the other municipal court of record courts, the jurisdiction being that which is conferred upon all municipal courts of record by Chapter 30 of the Texas Government Code and other law.
- C. In addition to the jurisdiction granted above in this article and in accordance with Section 30.00005 of the Texas Government Code, each municipal court of record has concurrent jurisdiction with a district court or a county court at law under Subchapter B, Chapter 54, Texas Local Government Code, within the City of Arlington territorial limits and property owned by the City located in the City’s extraterritorial jurisdiction for the purpose of enforcing health and safety and nuisance abatement ordinances.
- D. Every violation of an ordinance described by section 54.032 of the Texas Local Government Code or adopted under Subchapter E, Chapter 683 of the Texas Transportation Code or under Section 214.001(a) (1) of the Texas Local Government Code, or in accordance with other provisions as amended or otherwise allowed by law, may be enforced as an administrative offense using alternative administrative adjudication procedures. The adoption of use of alternative administrative adjudication procedure does not preclude the City from enforcing a violation of an ordinance described in this section through criminal penalties and procedures.

Further, Article V, Appeals, is amended so that said Article shall be and read as follows:

Section 5.01 Right to Appeal; Perfection of Appeal

- A. A defendant has the right of appeal from a judgment or conviction in a Municipal Court of record. The County Criminal Courts of Tarrant County have jurisdiction of appeals from the Municipal Court. The state has the right to appeal as provided by Article 44.01, Code of Criminal Procedure.
- B. The appellate court shall determine each appeal from a Municipal Court conviction and each appeal from the state on the basis of the errors that are set forth in the appellant's motion for new trial and that are presented in the clerk's record and reporter's record of facts prepared from the proceedings leading to the conviction or appeal. An appeal from the Municipal Court shall not be by trial de novo.

To perfect an appeal, the appellant must file a written motion for new trial with the Municipal Clerk no later than the tenth (10th) day after the date on which judgment is rendered. The motion must set forth the points of error of which the appellant complains. The motion or an amended motion may be amended by leave of court at any time before action on the motion is taken, but not later than the twentieth (20th) day after the date on which the original or amended motion is filed. The court may for good cause extend the time for filing or amending, but the extension may not exceed ninety (90) days from the original filing deadline. If the court does not act on the motion before the expiration of the thirty (30) days allowed for determination of the motion, the original or amended motion is overruled by operation of law.

- D. To perfect an appeal, the appellant must also give notice of the appeal. If the appellant requests a hearing on the motion for new trial, the appellant may give the notice of appeal orally in open court on the overruling of the motion. If there is no hearing, the defendant must give a written notice of appeal and must file the notice with the court not later than the tenth (10th) day after the date on which the motion is overruled. The court may for good cause extend that time period, but the extension may not exceed ninety (90) days from the original filing deadline.

Section 5.02 Appeal Bond

- A. If the defendant is not in custody, the defendant may not take an appeal until the defendant files an appeal bond with the Municipal Court. The bond must be approved by the court and must be filed not later than the tenth (10th) day after the date on which the motion for new trial is overruled. If the defendant is in custody, the defendant shall be committed to jail unless the defendant posts the appeal bond.

- B. The appeal bond must be in the amount of One Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($100.00) or double the amount of the fines and costs adjudged against the defendant, whichever is greater. The bond must state that the defendant was convicted in the case and has appealed, and it must be conditioned on the defendant's immediate and daily personal appearance in the court to which the appeal is taken.

Section 5.03 Record on Appeal

The record on appeal must substantially conform to the provisions relating to the preparation of a record on appeal in the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure and the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Section 5.04 Clerk's Record

The clerk's record must substantially conform to the provisions relating to the preparation of a clerk's record in the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure and the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Section 5.05 Bills of Exception

Bills of exception must substantially conform to the provisions relating to the preparation of bills of exception in the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure and the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Section 5.06 Reporter's Record

A reporter's record included in the record on appeal must substantially conform to the provisions relating to the preparation of a reporter's record in the Texas Rules of Appellate Procedure and the Code of Criminal Procedure.

Section 5.07 Completion, Approval and Transfer of Record

- A. Not later than the sixtieth (60th) day after the date on which the notice of appeal is given or filed, the parties must file with the Municipal Clerk:
1. The reporter's record;
  2. A written description of material to be included in the clerk's record in addition to the required material; and

3. Any material to be included in the clerk's record that is not in the custody of the Municipal Clerk.
- B. On completion of the record, the Municipal Judge shall approve the record in the manner provided for record completion, approval and notification in the court of appeals.
- C. After the court approves the record, the Municipal Clerk shall promptly send it to the appellate court clerk for filing. The appellate court clerk shall notify the defendant and the prosecuting attorney that the record has been filed.

Section 5.08 Brief on Appeal

- A. An appellant's brief on appeal from the Municipal Court must present points of error in the manner required by law for a brief on appeal to the court of appeals.
- B. The appellant must file the brief with the appellate court clerk not later than the fifteenth (15th) day after the date on which the clerk's record and reporter's record are filed with that clerk. The appellant or the appellant's attorney must certify that the brief has been properly mailed to the Appellee.
- C. The appellee must file the appellee's brief with the appellate court clerk not later than the fifteenth (15th) day after the date on which the defendant's brief is filed.
- D. Each party, on filing the party's brief with the appellate court clerk, shall deliver a copy of the brief to the opposing party and to the Municipal Judge.

Section 5.09 Disposition on Appeal

- A. According to law and the nature of the case, the appellate court may:
  1. Affirm the judgment of the Municipal Court;
  2. Reverse and remand for a new trial;
  3. Reverse and dismiss the case; or
  4. Reform and correct the judgment.
- B. Unless the matter was made an issue in the trial court or it affirmatively appears to the contrary from the clerk's record or reporter's record, the appellate court shall presume that:

1. Venue was proven in the trial court;
  2. The jury, if any, was properly impaneled and sworn;
  3. The defendant was arraigned and pleaded to the complaint; and
  4. The Municipal Judge certified the charge before it was read to the jury.
- C. In each case decided by the appellate court, the court shall deliver a written opinion or order either sustaining or overruling each assignment of error presented. The court shall set forth the reasons for its decision. The appellate court clerk shall mail copies of the decision to the parties and to the Municipal Judge as soon as the decision is rendered.

Section 5.10 Certificate of Appellate Proceedings

When the judgment of the appellate court becomes final, the clerk of that court shall certify the proceedings and the judgment and shall mail the certificate to the Municipal Clerk. The Municipal Clerk shall file the certificate with the papers in the case and note the certificate on the case docket. If the Municipal Court judgment is affirmed, further action to enforce the judgment is not necessary except to:

1. Forfeit the bond of the defendant;
2. Issue a writ of capias for the defendant; or
3. Issue an execution against the defendant's property.

Section 5.11 Effect of Order of New Trial

If the appellate court awards a new trial to the appellant, the case stands as if a new trial had been granted by the Municipal Court.

Section 5.12 Appeals to Court of Appeals

The appellant has the right to appeal to the court of appeals if the fine assessed against the defendant exceeds One Hundred Dollars and No Cents ($100.00) and if the judgment is affirmed by the appellate court. The provisions of the Code of Criminal Procedure relating to direct appeals from a county or a district court to the court of appeals apply to the appeal, except that:

1. The record and briefs on appeal in the appellate court constitute the record and briefs on appeal to the court of appeals unless the rules of the court of criminal appeals provide otherwise; and
2. The record and briefs shall be filed directly with the court of appeals.

Further, Article VII, Inspection and Abatement Warrants, Section 7.01, Definitions, is amended at subsection 4 relative to the definition of “Inspector” so that said definition shall be and read as follows:

4. Inspector - Any peace officer of the State of Texas or any designated inspector for any department of the City of Arlington, Texas, which is charged with code enforcement or enforcement of any provision of the Code of the City of Arlington or state or federal laws.

accordance with other provisions as amended or otherwise allowed by law, may be enforced as an administrative offense using the alternative administrative adjudication procedure set forth in this Article. The adoption or use of this alternative administrative adjudication procedure does not preclude the City from enforcing a violation of an ordinance through criminal penalties and procedures.

B. Intent. This section shall be construed to secure its expressed intent, which is to ensure public health, safety and welfare insofar as they are affected by the continued occupancy and maintenance of structures and premises and vehicle offenses. Nothing in this Article shall be construed to cancel, modify or set aside any other provision of the City's Code of Ordinances.

C. Findings.

1. The City Council finds that it may enforce each rule, ordinance, or police regulation of the City and may punish a violation of a rule, ordinance or police regulation in accordance with the Texas Local Government Code and home rule authority
2. The City Council finds and determines that alternative civil adjudication is a means to promote and verify property ordinance code compliance, certain parking, stopping, standing, junked vehicle and intersection offenses, and other compliance areas while providing efficient, fair, and impartial hearings with respect for the rule of law.
3. Debts and accounts receivable such as unpaid penalties, fines, fees, and court costs ordered paid by a court or hearing officer may be processed for collection after sixty days overdue with a collection contactor or a City department as authorized by law.

  - b. regardless of its structural condition, unoccupied by its owners, lessees, or other invitees and is unsecured from unauthorized entry to the extent that it could be entered or used by vagrants or other uninvited persons as a place of harborage or could be entered or used by children; or
  - c. boarded up, fenced, or otherwise secured in any manner if:
    - (1) the building constitutes a danger to the public even though secured from entry; or
    - (2) the means used to secure the building are inadequate to prevent unauthorized entry or use of the building in the manner described by Subdivision (b).
9. relating to junked vehicles visible from a public place or the public right-of-way; and
10. authorized by state law for administrative adjudication.

E. Administrative Penalty. A fine or penalty for the violation of an ordinance adjudicated under this Article may not exceed $500. - A. An administrative citation issued under this Article must contain:
  1. the date, location, and description of the violation alleged;
  2. a notice that the person charged with violating the ordinance has the right to a hearing and information as to how to request a hearing; and
  3. the number of days that the person has in which to pay the civil penalty or contest the penalty.
- B. An administrative citation serves as the summons or citation referenced in Chapter 54 of the Texas Local Government Code.
- C. A copy of the citation must be kept as a record in the ordinary course of business of the City by the Director, and is rebuttable proof of the facts it states.
- D. Service of a Citation.
  1. An attempt must be made to personally serve an administrative citation by handing it to the person charged if the person is present at the time of service or by leaving the citation at the person's usual place of residence with any person residing at such residence who is of suitable age and discretion and informing that person of the citation's contents.
  2. If an attempt to personally serve the citation fails, the citation may be served to the person by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, at an address indicated by the appraisal district records of the appraisal district in which the property is located, secretary of state records, or any tax or utility record. If service is made in this manner and mail is returned “unclaimed” or “refused,” the validity of the citation is not affected, and the citation is considered as delivered.

3. If an attempt to personally serve the citation fails, the citation must then be served upon the person charged by posting the citation on either:
  - a. the front door of the premises or property; or
  - b. a placard staked to the yard of the premises or property in a location visible from a public street or alley.

E. Answering a Citation.

1. A person who has been issued a citation shall answer to the charge of the violation as directed on the administrative citation. A person who fails to answer the citation as directed is considered to have admitted liability for the violation charged.
2. An answer to the administrative citation may be made by:
  - a. returning the administrative citation, on or before the 30th calendar day after issuance of the citation, with the applicable administrative penalty, which action constitutes an admission of liability; or
  - b. making an appearance as directed on the administrative citation on or before the 30th calendar day after issuance of the citation and requesting a hearing.

F. Failure to Appear at an Administrative Hearing. A person issued a citation who fails to appear at any hearing under this Article is considered to have admitted liability for the violation charged. The hearing officer shall issue, in writing, an administrative order of liability and assess against the person charged with the violation an appropriate amount of administrative penalties, fees, and costs.

Section 9.04 Hearing Officers; Qualifications, Powers, Duties, and Functions

- A. Hearing officers shall be Municipal Court Judges or appointed by the City Manager to administratively adjudicate violations of ordinances described by this Article or in accordance with other provisions as amended or allowed by law.
- B. A hearing officer must meet all of the following qualifications:
  1. Be familiar with state and local laws regarding substandard structures, junked vehicles, City health and safety ordinances, and all areas subject to administrative adjudication listed in this Article or otherwise allowed by state law.

2. Be a citizen of the United States.
  3. Be a licensed attorney in good standing.
  4. Have two or more years of experience in the practice of law in the State of Texas.
- C. A hearing officer shall have the following powers, duties, and functions:
1. To administer oaths.
  2. To accept admissions to, and to hear and determine contests of, premises and property violations.
  3. To issue orders compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of documents, which orders may be enforced by a municipal court.
  4. To make findings of liability or no liability to violations, and in the event of a liable finding, to assess administrative penalties, fees, and costs.
  5. To question witnesses and examine evidence offered.

Section 9.05 Administrative Adjudication Hearing and Appeal

- A. Every hearing for the adjudication of an administrative citation under this section must be held before a hearing officer.
- B. At a hearing under this section, the administrative citation is rebuttable proof of the facts that it contains. The formal rules of evidence do not apply to the hearing, and any relevant evidence will be admitted if the hearing officer finds it competent and reliable, regardless of the existence of any common law or statutory rule to the contrary. The hearing officer shall make a decision based upon a preponderance of the evidence presented at the hearing, after giving due weight to all rebuttable proof established by this Article or other applicable law.
- C. Each party shall have the right to call and examine witnesses, to introduce exhibits, to cross-examine opposing witnesses on any matter relevant to the issues, and to rebut evidence. A person charged with a civil offense under this Article may request in writing no later than five days before the hearing that the Issuing Officer appear at the hearing; except that, if the person charged fails to make a timely, written request to have the Issuing Officer present at the hearing, the person charged will be deemed to have waived the right to call and examine the Issuing Officer.

- D. The hearing officer may examine any witness and may consider any evidence offered by a witness or person charged with a violation, giving due weight to all testimony and evidence offered.
- E. The proceedings of the administrative hearing will be recorded electronically. The person charged may, at his expense, have a court reporter present in the hearing room during the proceedings.
- F. After hearing all the evidence, the hearing officer shall render an order either:
1. finding the person charged liable for the violation, notifying the person of the right of appeal, and assessing the applicable civil penalty or penalties, fees, and costs to the extent allowed and authorized by ordinance or resolution of the Arlington City Council, such resolution being automatically incorporated herein for all purposes; or
  2. finding the person charged not liable for the violation.
- G. The administrative order of the hearing officer must be filed with the municipal court.
- H. Appeal.
1. A person found liable for a violation by a hearing officer at an administrative adjudication hearing may appeal the determination to the municipal court. If the initial hearing officer was a municipal court judge, then the appeal is to the municipal court chief judge or his designee.
  2. To perfect an appeal, the person shall not later than the 31st calendar day after the hearing officer's order is issued:
    - a. file a written appeal request in municipal court;
    - b. post a cash deposit or bond acceptable to the City in the amount of the penalties, fees, and costs assessed at the hearing; and
    - c. pay an appeal fee.
  3. If a person found liable for a violation does not timely appeal the hearing officer's administrative order, the order will become a final judgment. A perfected appeal stays enforcement and collection of the penalty, fees, and costs imposed against the person. If the administrative penalties, fees, and costs assessed in the final judgment are not paid within 31 calendar days after the date of the hearing officer's order, the administrative penalties, fees, and costs may be referred to a collection agency and the cost to the city for the collection services will be assessed as costs, at the rate agreed to between the city and the collection agency, and added to the judgment or as otherwise allowed by law.

4. The municipal court shall set an appeal hearing within 90 days of the request for a hearing and send notice of the appeal hearing to the person requesting an appeal. An appeal shall be determined by the municipal court by hearing de novo. Upon receipt of an appeal, the municipal court shall schedule an appeal hearing and notify the person and the City Attorney's Office of the date, time, and location of the hearing.
5. At the appeal hearing, the municipal judge shall:
  - a. affirm the administrative order of the hearing officer finding the appellant liable; or
  - b. reverse the hearing officer's order and find the appellant not liable.
6. At the appeal hearing, upon an order by the municipal judge of:
  - a. Liable, affirming the administrative order of the hearing officer, the cash deposit or bond shall be applied and forfeited; and
  - b. Not Liable, reversing the administrative order of the hearing officer, the cash deposit or bond shall be refunded to the person, but under no circumstances shall the appeal fee be refunded.
7. The municipal judge's ruling is a final judgment. If the municipal judge affirms the hearing officer's order, any administrative penalties, fees, or costs assessed must be paid within 30 calendar days after the municipal judge's ruling. If the municipal judge reverses the hearing officer's order, any administrative penalties, fees, or costs originally assessed are discharged.

I. Increasing Penalties for Subsequent Offenses.

1. Upon a finding of Liable for an offense at an administrative adjudication hearing or an appeal hearing under this Article, the municipal judge or hearing officer may:
  - a. Assess a penalty in an amount that is two times more than the penalty that would otherwise be assessed, not to exceed the maximum allowed by law, exclusive of costs and fees, if the person has been previously found liable one time for the same offense.
  - b. Assess a penalty in an amount that is three times more than the penalty that would otherwise be assessed, not to exceed the maximum allowed by law, exclusive of costs and fees, if the person has been previously found liable two or more times for the same offense.

2. If the municipal judge increases the penalty at an appeal hearing under this Section, the cash deposit or bond shall be forfeited and the person shall pay the additional penalty assessed within 30 calendar days after the municipal judge's ruling.
- J. If a person does not timely pay the applicable penalties, fees, and costs assessed ordered to be paid by a municipal judge or hearing officer under this Section, a late payment fee shall be assessed.

Section 9.06 Effect of Liability; Exclusion of Civil Remedy; Enforcement

- A. The imposition of a civil penalty under this Article is not a criminal conviction, except that a finding of liable may be considered a conviction for purposes of abatement procedures, permit or certificate of occupancy revocation procedures, or any other procedures outlined under the Arlington Code of Ordinances.
- B. A civil penalty may not be imposed upon a person for an offense under this Article if the person was arrested or was issued a criminal citation and notice to appear by a peace officer for a violation of state law or city ordinance, for the same specific incidence as the civil offense.
- C. The City may enforce the hearing officer's administrative order by filing a civil suit for collection of the administrative penalties, fees, and costs and by obtaining an injunction to prohibit specific conduct that violates the ordinance or administrative order or to require specific conduct necessary for compliance with the ordinance or administrative order.

Section 9.07 Notices to Certain Property Owners

- A. A governmental entity that is required by statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance to send a notice to an owner of real property for the purpose of enforcing a municipal ordinance may include the following statement in the notice: "According to the real property records of _____ County, you own the real property described in this notice. If you do not send the affidavit, it will be presumed that you own the property described in this notice, even if you do not." The notice must be delivered in person or by certified mail, return receipt requested.
- B. If a governmental entity sends a notice to the owner of the property to which the notice relates, as shown on or after the 10th day before the date notice is sent by the real property records of the county in which the property is located, and the

- C. The record owner shall deliver the affidavit in person or by certified mail, return receipt requested, to the governmental entity not later than the 20th day after the date the record owner receives the notice.
- D. If the governmental entity receives an affidavit under Subsection (C), the governmental entity shall send the appropriate notice to the person named in the affidavit as having acquired the property. A notice sent under this subsection must include the statement authorized by Subsection (A).
- E. A governmental entity that receives an affidavit under Subsection (C) shall:
1. maintain the affidavit on file for at least two years after the date the entity receives the affidavit; and
  2. deliver a copy of the affidavit to the chief appraiser of the appraisal district in which the property is located.
- F. A governmental entity is considered to have provided notice to a property owner if the entity complies with the statute, rule, regulation, or ordinance under which the notice is sent and if it:
1. complies with Subsection (A) and does not receive an affidavit from the record owner; or
  2. complies with Subsection (D) and does not receive an affidavit from the person to whom the notice was sent under Subsection (D).
- G. If a governmental entity complies with this section and does not receive an affidavit under Subsection (C), the record owner is presumed to be the owner of the property for all purposes to which the notice relates.
