NEWS & NOTES

AQUATICS

Arlington Parks and Recreation implemented the “Bakari Williams Protocol” and made significant investments in the installation of health and safety equipment at its public pools and splash pads. The $600,000 in improvements, as well as new policies, practices and protocols, were designed to improve visitors’ safety and experience while at Arlington aquatics facilities.

GOLF

Tierra Verde Golf Club underwent a three-month renovation, which included greens restoration and transition to new Champions bermudagrass greens, new bunkers, brush clearing, sodding and other course improvements. The bunkers were re-built using the a sprayed-on polymer sub-surface. As a result, the new method results in better playing conditions and reduced maintenance following heavy rainfall.

VENTANA GRILLE

The restaurant partnered with Favor Delivery to offer mobile ordering and delivery services, offering a convenient option for those that would prefer to dine at home while still enjoying the tasty Ventana Grille fare. The restaurant can also use this opportunity to showcase its offerings to new customers searching for nearby restaurants on the Favor smartphone app or website.

COMMUNITY PROGRAMS

Led by former TCU player-turned-parks-employee Lorie Butler-Zarate, Arlington participated in the WNBA and Jr. NBA’s nationwide initiative called Her Time To Play, a program dedicated to championing change on behalf of girls and women and providing them with ways to connect, collaborate, and actively engage with one another through the game of basketball, as well as lessons that teach the girls life skills, like how to face challenges, gain confidence, and learn values both on and off the court. Participants enjoyed a special visit from Sandora Irvin, former WNBA player and TCU Hall of Famer.

GOLF

Texas Rangers Golf Club welcomed 156 of the best golfers in the world back to Arlington in hosting the Korn Ferry Tour’s second-annual Veritex Bank Championship in April, which was won by Tyson Alexander for the second straight year. A large portion of the tournament’s net proceeds supported local charities including the Boys & Girls Club of Greater Tarrant County, The Folded Flag Foundation, Camp Esperanza for Kids, along with several junior golf programs.
