

Ask Dr. Jenkins

- Who/What: An opportunity to have Dr. Jenkins look at your pet and answer your pet health questions.
- Where: Arlington Animal Services Center, Community Room
1000 S.E. Green Oaks Blvd., 76018
- When: The second (2nd) Thursday every month, 6 - 7 p.m.
- Why/How: This consultation is free! Just show up with your pet and your problems. Dr. Jenkins will help you with advice on the best course of action to get your pet healthy, and keep it that way!

Would you like to "Ask Dr. Jenkins" a question about your pet? There are no fees on the second Thursday of each month to "Ask Dr. Jenkins" a question about your pet.

Dr. Jenkins' father's family moved to Arlington in 1923. Dr. Jenkins is a graduate of Arlington High School and he received his bachelor's degree in Accounting from the University of Texas. Dr. Jenkins earned an Animal Science degree from Texas A&M University as well as his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine degree.

Dr. Jenkins practiced veterinary medicine full time in the Arlington area at Rendon Road Animal Clinic and Creature Comfort Animal Clinic for 39 years, from 1974 through 2013. Dr. Jenkins is now retired from everyday veterinary practice but still works part-time with Creature Comfort Animal Clinic in Arlington. Dr. Jenkins was appointed a volunteer for the Arlington Animal Services Center Advisory Board.

Dr. Jenkins has been married to Robin Jenkins for 42 years. Dr. Jenkins has one dog, Blondie, and he enjoys spending time with his family.

This event is sponsored by Zoetis and Dr. Jenkins. Those visiting Dr. Jenkins will receive a FREE heartworm test and one month of free heartworm prevention, made possible through gifts from Zoetis (the world's largest animal health company).

