

The Arlington Martin Luther King Celebration Committee

Arlington Ministerial Association

The Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration

January 14-17, 2005

In partnership with

- Star-Telegram • JP Morgan Chase • TXU Electric Delivery • Siemen's Dematic Postal • The U.S. Postal Service
- Wells Fargo • Jack and Jill of America, Inc. • Six Flags Over Texas

FRIDAY

Kickoff Celebration Event: The "Sharing The Dream" Banquet at 6:30 p.m. Friday, Jan. 14

Keynote Speaker
Rev. Dwight McKissic

UTA Bluebonnet Ballroom - E.H. Hereford University Center
Keynote Speaker: The Reverend Dwight McKissic, Sr., local historian and founder of Cornerstone Baptist Church-Arlington

Performances by the Juan Seguin High School Gospel Choir, Step By Step Dance Studio, and presentations by the student winners of the "Sharing The Dream" Essay and Art scholarship competitions.

Adult Tickets - $30 / Student Tickets - $20

Purchase tickets at any Arlington Public Library, the Star-Telegram Customer Service Office at 1111 W. Abram St. or by calling A.I.S.D. at 817-459-7217.

Celebrity Host
Rebecca Rodriguez,
WFAA Channel 8

SATURDAY

Junior Art Reach 2005

Participants age 4-12 broaden their awareness of the life and times of Dr. King through art and music. This free session is coordinated by the Arlington Arts League.

10 a.m. - Noon

Saturday, Jan. 15

Bowie High School
2101 Highbank Drive

Explore 2005

College awareness seminar especially for teens age 14-18. Motivational speaker to address the importance of an education in today's society.

10 a.m. - Noon

Saturday, Jan. 15

Bowie High School
2101 Highbank Dr.

The MLK "Sharing the Dream" Step Show

Stepping competition takes center stage for junior and senior high school students. Performances must reflect Dr. King's dream. Admission at the door is $10 for adults/$5 for children age 5-12 or $5 pre-sale. Cash prizes awarded to winning teams.

1 - 3 p.m. Saturday, Jan. 15

Bowie High School
2101 Highbank Dr.

Entry fee is $50 per team.
Call 817-459-7217 to enter today!

"Sharing the Dream" Multicultural Festival

An international festival of cultural music, fashion, dance and food. Admission is free.

3:30 p.m.

Saturday,

Jan. 15

Tarrant County College

Southeast Campus,
2100 Southeast Parkway

Celebrity Host
Bob Ray Sanders,
Fort Worth
Star-Telegram
Columnist

Pre-order your MLK T-shirt by calling 817-459-7393. A postal cancellation and envelope commemorating the 2005 MLK Celebration will be available.

SUNDAY

"Sharing the Dream" - Hubert Moss Ecumenical Worship Service

Arlington comes together in worship during this 90-minute service that features keynote speaker The Rev. Michael A. Evans, Pastor, Bethelham Baptist Church of Mansfield. Service also features entertainment and the Aliento de Vida (Breath of Life) from MiCasa Su Casa Church of Arlington. After the service, Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. invites you to attend a holiday reception.

6 p.m. Sunday, Jan. 16

First United Methodist Church, 313 N. Center St.

MONDAY

"Sharing The Dream" Youth Extravaganza

More than 500 youth share King's dream on the official Dr. King holiday. Music, dance and drama performances combined with more than 14 area school choirs, the Juan Seguin High School Gospel Choir and the winners of the MLK Art, Essay and Step Show competitions highlight this free program.

Celebrity Host WFAA Channel 8 Reporter
Yolanda Walker

7 p.m. Monday, Jan. 17

UTA - Texas Hall

Celebrity host
Yolanda Walker

Star-Telegram

For more information, call the MLK Event Hotline at 817-459-6430 or the City of Arlington Office of Communication at 817-459-6404.

