

The Sharing the Dream Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Celebration 2006

Friday January 13, 2006 - Kickoff Celebration

6:30 p.m.

"Sharing the Dream" Banquet

University of Texas at Arlington - Bluebonnet Ballroom

300 W. First Street

A national memorial to the movement for racial equality in Washington D.C. is no longer a dream. Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Incorporated is leading the national campaign to raise $100 million to build a monument on the National Mall in honor of Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. Ground-breaking is planned for Fall 2006. Dr. Willie J. Edwards, Texas State District Director of Alpha Phi Alpha Fraternity, Inc. is the keynote speaker and presents the "Build the Dream" MLK National Memorial Project.

Tickets:

$30 - Adult
$20 - Student
Purchase at the
Star-Telegram
Customer Service
Office at 1111 W.
Abram Street or call 817-548-5400.

SPEAKER: WILLIE J. EDWARDS

The MLK Celebration Committee presents the Inaugural 2006 "Sharing the Dream" Award & "Sharing the Dream" Awards in Education, Community Service and Government. Winners to be announced at the banquet.

Performances by the Martin High School Orchestra and Step By Step Dance Studio. Also presenting the winners of the Sharing the Dream Essay and Art competitions and the official unveiling of the "To Form a More Perfect Union" stamp.

Pre-order your MLK T-shirt by calling 817-459-7393. A postal cancellation and envelope commemorating the 2006 Arlington MLK Celebration will be available.

Saturday January 14, 2006

10 a.m. - Bowie High School Junior Art Reach 2006

Especially for participants ages 4 to 12. The Arlington Art League leads this free hands-on program that focuses on the arts. Admission is free.

10 a.m. - Bowie High School College Explore 2006

Especially for teens age 14-18. The University of Texas at Arlington leads this free information session that explores the role of education in our society.

Bowie High School is located at 2101 Highbank Drive south of Interstate 20 in Arlington.

1 p.m. - Bowie High School The MLK Sharing the Dream Step Show

Performances "step" to the dreams and principles of Dr. King Jr. Competition includes Elementary, Junior High and High School step teams.

$10 - Admission at the door

$5 - Admission at door for Elementary Students and children under age 5

$5 - Pre sale by calling 817-459-7217

Entry fee is $50 per team.

3:30 p.m. - Sharing the Dream Multicultural Festival

Tarrant County College Southeast Campus, 2100 Southeast Parkway Tarrant County College hosts this international festival of cultural music, fashion and food. Admission is free.

Arlington Ministerial Association

Star-Telegram

IN PARTNERSHIP WITH:

JP Morgan Chase, TXU Electric Delivery, SIEMENS, The United States Postal Service, Wells Fargo Bank, United Parcel Service

Sunday January 15, 2006

6 p.m.

Hubert Moss Worship Service St. Vincent DePaul Catholic Church 5819 W. Pleasant Ridge

Arlington comes together in remembrance of Dr. King and the movement for racial equality. Father Phillip Johnson is the keynote speaker. Ninety-minute service features the All-City Boys and Girls Choir and the Psalm Sacred Dancers. After the service, join Xi Theta Omega Chapter of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority, Inc. for holiday refreshments in the Reception Hall.

Monday January 16, 2006

7 p.m.

Sharing the Dream Youth Extravaganza UTA Texas Hall, 701 W. Nedderman Dr.

On the official holiday, more than 500 youths from 14 area school choirs share King's dream in song, dance and drama. Program features the winners of the Art, Essay and Step Show competitions. Celebrity Host Yolanda Walker, with WFAA-TV News, returns.

For more information, call the MLK Event Hotline at 817-459-6430 or the City of Arlington Office of Communication at 817-459-6404.
www.ci.arlington.tx.us/mlk